

Know Your Human Design

I have included my Human Design bodygraph so you can get an idea of what I'm talking about when I mention your energy template, or blueprint. Don't be overwhelmed by this and trust me, I'll be learning about Human Design for the rest of this lifetime, at least!

These are just a few basics that I want you to have a good handle on by the time we finish this course. You can study Human Design in depth and that is a course all on it Own. Based on the number of students and time constraints, I like to do a brief reading of each person's human design chart. Make sure I have your birth date, location and exact time by emailing me at: evangelinehemrick@gmail.com

During our live Q and A Zoom meeting, we will go over some key points in each person's chart and it's always fascinating to see what beautiful mosaic of aura types come together for a powerful class like this one. Each group is always the "right group" and we come together to share our energy for a reason.

In the bodygraph image below, each one of the gates and channels has a special attribute that is activated in me. You are looking at a detailed overview of my chakra system and how my energy centers are connected and not connected. This is how my specific chakra system works. From this chart, one can determine where someone holds their strength and power, how they manifest, how they process information, how they are affected by the world around them, what skills they inherited from their parents, genetic predispositions, tribal fears and much more.

If astrology does not interest you but chakras do, think of Human Design as a chakra treasure map and each human being is the hidden treasure.

You are a Manifesting Generator. You can have a lot of energy and enjoy doing and trying new things. You have a strong method of self-expression and it can be easy for you to get involved with and start new things. You can have a lot of dedication for activities that you love to do, however it can be easy for you to get over extended and involved in commitments that you don't really want to be doing. A commitment or activity may seem like a good idea at first, but, if you don't have a deeper energetic compatibility with it, it can drag you down and become a torment over time. Within your unique chart configuration, there are dilemmas that can get in the way of you following your passions. The following is an example of this.

You are a 3/5 Profile. Your unconscious has an innate awareness of social dynamics, helping you understand and engage with a wide range of people. Your unconscious thrives on dynamic interactions and opportunities to use your leadership skills in practice.
Because they are difficult to detect, it is easy to overlook your unconscious needs. When times are hard, you may feel trapped by the monotony of life and seek out engaging experiences in an attempt to rekindle

Why Take Time to Understand Energetic Blueprints?

Understanding how my clients' chakras work along with how my friends and family operate, what makes the people around me tick, what lights me up and what throws me for a loop-this is pure gold wisdom that makes your own life work better.

Understanding why the people around us behave the way they do gives us more awareness, compassion and you guessed it-EMPOWERMENT & EFFECTIVENESS.

Throughout the ages, Kings and Queens would keep wise ones close for consultation. The ones who studied the stars, had psychic dreams and visions were the chosen ones. At this stage in the development of humanity, it is up to each one of us to be the visionary and the star gazer of our own life.

If you see clients in a therapeutic setting, your practice will be enhanced with just a basic understanding of this modality.
